16. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, the Notice Parties have ten (10) days from the date of service of the Monthly Fee Statement to object to the amounts requested. If no objection is filed prior to expiration of the objection period, the Commonwealth is authorized to pay the respective professionals 90% of the fees and 100% of the expenses sought in each Monthly Fee Statement.

17. On June 20, 2018, the Court entered the First Amended Order Pursuant to PROMESA Sections 316 and 317 and Bankruptcy Code Section 105(A) Appointing a Fee Examiner and Related Relief [Dkt. No. 3324] (the “Amended Fee Examiner Order”).

18. On June 26, 2019, the Court entered the Order Imposing Additional Standards: Rate Increases and the Retention of Expert Witnesses or Other Sub-Retained Professionals [Dkt.

No. 7678].

C. Retention of Continental

19. On April 30, 2019, the Committee filed an application to retain and employ the law firm of Genovese Joblove & Battista, P.A. (“GJB”) as special litigation and conflicts counsel. On May 31, 2019, the Court entered the Order Authorizing Employment and Retention of Genovese, Joblove & Battista, P.A. as Special Litigation Counsel to Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 1103(A) and Local Rule 2014-1(e), Effective as of April 16, 2019 [Dkt. No. 7181].

20. Effective as of February 14, 2022, John Arrastia, Jesus Suarez, and Angelo Castaldi (collectively, the “Attorneys”)—three of the GJB attorneys who had been primarily responsible for the representation of the Committee as special litigation and conflicts counsel—formed and joined Continental. To ensure continuity of representation and to minimize expenses the Committee would have to incur in connection with having unfamiliar attorneys represent the Committee, the Committee approved Continental’s substitution the Title III Cases, effective as of February 14, 2022.

21. On February 28, 2022, Continental filed the Application for Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 1103(A) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2014-1(E) Authorizing Employment and Retention of Continental PLLC as Substitute Special Litigation Counsel to Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Effective as of February 14, 2022 (the “Continental Application”) [Dkt. No. 20222].

22. By order of this Court entered March 18, 2022 [Dkt. No. 20407] (the “Retention Order”), the Continental Application was approved effective as of February 14, 2022. The terms of the retention of Continental are identical in all material respects to the retention of GJB and are no less favorable to the Committee.

23. The retention of Continental (and the Attorneys) as special litigation and conflicts counsel remains necessary and appropriate because the Committee desired to retain a firm with expertise in asserting claims against existing defendants and potential adverse parties that present a conflict to the Committee's primary counsel, Paul Hastings.

24. Continental's retention extends to the representation of the Committee as the official committee for the HTA Title III Case, the ERS Title III Case, and the PREPA Title III Case. In particular, the Retention Order provided that "[t]he retention of Continental, as counsel to the Committee, shall be deemed to apply to the representation of the Committee if ever enlarged to include unsecured creditors of other debtors, without the need to obtain a modification of this Order."

25. The Retention Order authorized Continental to be compensated on an hourly basis and reimbursed for actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses pursuant to sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and such orders as the Court may direct. The Retention Order further provides that "[p]ursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 503(b)(1), made applicable by PROMESA section 301(a), the fees and expenses of Continental shall be an administrative expense." In addition, as provided in the Retention Order, the Committee has consented to the Debtors' payment of Continental's allowed fees and expenses.

26. On May 13, 2022, Continental filed its First Supplemental Declaration Regarding the Retention of Continental as Special Litigation and Conflicts Counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in accordance with the Order Approving List of Material Interested Parties Pursuant to The Puerto Rico Recovery Accuracy In Disclosures Act [Dkt. No. 204671] (the "PRRADA Order") and the Puerto Rico Recovery Accuracy in Disclosures Act, Pub. L. No. 117-

82 (“PRRADA”), and the disclosure requirements of rule 2014(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. [Dkt. No. 20776].

27. On June 22, 2022, Continental filed its Second Supplemental Declaration Regarding the Retention of Continental as Special Litigation and Conflicts Counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in accordance with the PRRADA Order, PRRADA, and the disclosure requirements of rule 2014(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. [Dkt. No. 21306].

D. Applications for Interim Compensation

28. In addition to the Monthly Fee Statements, the Interim Compensation Order directed professionals to seek interim allowance and payment of compensation (including the 10% held back from Monthly Fee Statements) and expense reimbursement at 120-day intervals (each an “Interim Fee Period”) by filing with the Court and serving on the Notice Parties an application for approval and allowance of all compensation and reimbursement of expenses relating to services rendered and expenses incurred during the preceding Interim Fee Period (see Interim Compensation Order at ¶2(f)).

29. On October 27, 2022, Continental filed its First Interim Fee Application for the period from February 15, 2022 to May 31, 2022. [Dkt. No. 22713] (the “First Interim Fee Application”).

30. On November 15, 2022 Continental filed its Second Interim Fee Application for the period of June 1, 2022 to September 30, 2022 [Dkt. No. 22875] (the “Second Interim Fee Application”).

31. On January 27, 2023, the Court entered an Order awarding Continental the fees and expenses sought in the First Interim Fee Application and Second Interim Fee Application. [Dkt. No. 23408].

32. On March 15, 2023 Continental filed its Third Interim Fee Application for the period of October 1, 2022 to January 31, 2023 [Dkt. No. 23808] (the “Third Interim Fee Application”).

33. On June 13, 2023, the Court entered an Order awarding Continental the fees and expenses sought in the Third Interim Fee Application. [Dkt. No. 24548].

COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT REQUEST

Fourth Interim Application for Interim Compensation

34. This is the Fourth Interim Application for interim compensation for Continental and covers the Application Period from February 1, 2023 to May 31, 2023.

35. By this Fourth Interim Application, Continental seeks an order authorizing (a) allowance of interim compensation for professional services rendered to the Committee during the Application Period in the aggregate amount of $167,932.00 and (b) allowance of reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred by Continental in the aggregate amount of $2,809.16. These amounts were for legal services provided to the Committee in connection with the Commonwealth Title III case.

36. During the Application Period, Continental attorneys and paraprofessionals expended a total of 373.0 hours for which compensation is requested. All services rendered and expenses incurred for which compensation or reimbursement is requested were performed or incurred for or on behalf of the Committee.

37. The Committee has approved the amounts requested by Continental for services performed and expenses incurred in each of the monthly statements submitted to the Notice Parties as outlined in the Interim Compensation Order.

38. During the Application Period, Continental submitted four (4) Monthly Fee Statements. The first Monthly Fee Statement for the period from February 1, 2023 to February 28, 2023 was submitted and served on the Notice Parties on March 23, 2023 (the “First Monthly Fee Statement”). The objection deadline for the First Monthly Fee Statement expired April 2, 2023.

39. A second Monthly Fee Statement for the period from March 1, 2023 to March 31, 2023 was submitted and served on the Notice Parties on May 11, 2023 (the “Second Monthly Fee Statement”). The objection deadline for the Second Monthly Fee Statement was May 21, 2023.

40. A third Monthly Fee Statement for the period from April 1, 2023 to April 30, 2023 was submitted and served on the Notice Parties on June 26, 2023 (the “Third Monthly Fee Statement”). The objection deadline for the Third Monthly Fee Statement was July 6, 2023.

41. A fourth Monthly Fee Statement for the period from May 1, 2023 to May 31, 2023 (the “Fourth Monthly Fee Statement”), was submitted to the Committee on July 13, 2023. The objection deadline for the Fourth Monthly Fee Statement is July 23, 2023.

42. As of the date of the filing of this Fourth Interim Application, Continental has received only 90% of the payments for services rendered during the Application Period for the First and Second Monthly Fee Statements, and 0% of the Third and Fourth Monthly Fee Statements. Respectively, there remains a 10% holdback in the amount of $7,030.08 and a full remaining balance of $64,044.80 for a total of $71,074.88.

43. As a courtesy to the Committee and based on circumstances unique to the Title III Case, during the Application Period Continental voluntarily applied a 20% discount of its hourly rates totaling $33,586.40. For details regarding the discounted fees, please see the Certification of John Arrastia filed concurrently.

44. By this Fourth Interim Application, Continental requests allowance of all fees and expenses incurred for services rendered during the Application Period. At this time, Continental seeks payment of (a) fees billed and approved, but unpaid, for April and May 2023 and the 10% holdback for February and March 2023 and (b) 100% of expenses invoiced during the Application Period. The time billed by these timekeepers was reasonable, and Continental reserves the right to seek allowance and payment of these fees based on the facts and circumstances of these cases, including, without limitation, if objections are interposed to the allowance or payment of Continental's fees and expenses.

45. There is no agreement or understanding between Continental and any other person other than the attorneys, employees, and staff of Continental, for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in these cases.

46. Continental maintains computerized records, in the form of monthly statements, of the time spent by all Continental's attorneys and paraprofessionals in connection with its representation of the Committee. The monthly statements are in the same form regularly used by Continental to bill its clients for services rendered and include the date that the services were rendered, a detailed, and contemporaneous narrative description of the services provided, the amount of time spent for each service, and the designation of the professional who performed the service.

47. The fees charged by Continental in the Title III Case are billed in accordance with its existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Application Period. The rates Continental charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in the Title

III Case are less than the rates Continental charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable non-bankruptcy related matters.

48. Continental's rates are set at a level designed to fairly compensate Continental for the work of its attorneys and paraprofessionals to cover fixed and routine overhead expenses. Continental operates in a national marketplace for legal services in which rates are driven by multiple factors relating to the individual lawyer, his or her area of specialization, the firm's expertise, performance and reputation, the nature of the work involved, and other factors. Accordingly, Continental set its rates for attorneys and paraprofessionals both in the restructuring group and related litigation groups within the firm by reference to market information and market adjustments by firms considered to be industry peers. Based on this and reviews of contemporaneous time records and fee applications filed in other cases, Continental's endeavors to set the hourly rates for its attorneys and paraprofessionals at levels comparable to or below those of its principal competitor firms.

49. Continental's professional services during the Application Period required an aggregate expenditure of 373.0 recorded hours by Continental's attorneys and paraprofessionals, broken down as follows: partners (199.1 hours), associates (146.2 hours), and paraprofessionals (27.7 hours). During the Application Period, Continental's billing rates for attorneys rendering services in this matter ranged from $315.00 to $575.00 per hour.

50. To the extent that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred relate to the Application Period but were not processed before the preparation of this Fourth Interim Application, or Continental has for any other reason not sought compensation or reimbursement with respect to such services or expenses, Continental reserves the right to request additional compensation for such services, and reimbursement of such expenses, in a supplemental or future application.

During the Application Period, Continental collaborated with and assisted co-counsel on various matters related to claims filed against PREPA, while continuing to analyze the general unsecured claims pool.

55. In addition, during the Application Period Continental continued to assist counsel for the Committee and advise the Committee on all issues bearing on the rights of unsecured creditors in the Title III cases and taken proactive steps to protect the rights of unsecured creditors, including by: (i) reviewing the Oversight Board's reports concerning the designation and status of claims in connection with the alternative dispute resolution process and administrative claims reconciliation process; (ii) collaborating with other Committee advisors and counsel to the Special Claims Committee of the Oversight Board to dismiss adversary proceedings that were resolved as part of the Commonwealth Plan; (iii) attending Committee meetings and communicating regularly with Committee members regarding ongoing matters in the Title III cases; and (iv) monitoring hearings, pleadings filed, and orders entered in the Title III cases and related adversary proceedings.

56. In sum, Continental respectfully submits that the services for which it seeks compensation in this Fourth Interim Application were necessary for and beneficial to the Committee, and were rendered to protect, preserve, and maximize the value for unsecured creditors during the pendency of these Title III cases.

57. For all these reasons, Continental respectfully requests that the Court grant this Fourth Interim Application and allow interim compensation for professional services performed and reimbursement for expenses as requested.

REPORT ON MATTERS JOINTLY PURSUED BY OVERSIGHT BOARD AND COMMITTEE

70. As requested by the Fee Examiner, Continental sets forth below the status of various proceedings and motions jointly commenced by the Oversight Board or its Special Claims Committee, on the one hand, and the Committee, on the other hand, pursuant to stipulation for joint prosecution of causes of action or claims objections.

- Adversary Proceedings Against Fuel Oil Defendants and Other Proceedings: Continental represents the Committee with respect to the claims against numerous fuel oil suppliers and laboratories of PREPA to avoid certain fraudulent transfers [Adv. Pro. No. 19-388-LTS].

71. The sub-budgets and staffing plans with respect to the jointly pursued matters described above are included as part of Exhibit D-1 and Exhibit D-2, respectively.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY DISBURSEMENTS

72. As set forth in Exhibit E-2, Continental disbursed $2,809.16 as expenses incurred in providing professional services during the Application Period.

73. Continental believes the rates for charges incurred are at or below market rates that the majority of law firms charge clients for such services. In addition, Continental believes that such charges are in accordance with the American Bar Association's ("ABA") guidelines, as set forth in the ABA's Statement of Principles, dated January 12, 1995, regarding billing for disbursements and other charges.

REQUESTED COMPENSATION SHOULD BE ALLOWED

74. Section 316 of PROMESA provides for the compensation of professionals. Specifically, section 316 provides that a court may award a professional employed by a committee under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." PROMESA § 316(a). Section 316 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

- a. In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to a professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including:
 - i. the time spent on such services;
 - ii. the rates charged for such services;
 - iii. whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;
 - iv. whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
 - v. with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the restructuring field;

and

- vi. whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title or title 11, United States Code. PROMESA § 316(c). Further, section 317 of PROMESA provides that “a committee may apply to the court not more than once every 120 days for such compensation for services rendered.

75. In the instant case, Continental respectfully submits that the services for which it seeks compensation in this Fourth Interim Application were, at the time rendered, believed to be necessary for and beneficial to the Committee, the Debtors, and their stakeholders and were rendered to protect, preserve, and maximize value for unsecured creditors during the pendency of the Title III Cases. The services rendered to the Committee were performed in an economic, effective, and efficient manner commensurate with the complexity and importance of the issues involved. The results obtained to date have benefited not only the Committee but also the Debtors, their stakeholders, and other interested parties. Accordingly, the compensation requested is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Committee, the Debtors, and all parties in interest.

76. The work conducted was carefully assigned to appropriate professionals or paraprofessionals according to the experience and level of expertise required for each particular task. Whenever possible, Continental sought to minimize the costs of Continental’s services to the Committee by utilizing junior attorneys and paraprofessionals to handle the more routine aspects of the assignments. A small group of the same Continental attorneys was utilized for the vast majority of the work in order to minimize the costs of intra-Continental communication and education about the Title III Cases. As demonstrated by this Fourth Interim Application, Continental spent its time economically and without unnecessary duplication. Accordingly, approval of the compensation sought is warranted.

NOTICE

77. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, Continental will provide notice of this Fourth Interim Application to (i) the attorneys for the Oversight Board, Proskauer Rose LLP and O'Neill & Borges LLC; (ii) the attorneys for the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority, O'Melveny & Myers LLP and Marini Pietrantoni Muñiz LLC; (iii) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Puerto Rico; (iv) the attorneys for the Official Committee of Retired Employees, Jenner & Block LLP and Bennazar, García & Milián, C.S.P.; (v) the Puerto Rico Department of Treasury; (vi) the Fee Examiner, Brady Williamson; and (vii) counsel to the Fee Examiner, Godfrey & Kahn, S.C. and EDGE Legal Strategies, PSC. In addition, the notice of hearing with respect to this Fourth Interim Application will be served on all parties that have filed a notice of appearance in the Title III Cases.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Continental respectfully requests entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Schedule 3, (i) allowing interim compensation for professional services rendered during the Application Period in the amount of $167,932.00, representing 100% of the fees billed during the Application Period (not including Continental's voluntary fee reduction equal to 20% in the amount of $33,586.40) and reimbursement of $2,809.16, representing 100% of the actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Application Period (ii) authorizing and directing the Debtors' payment of the fees allowed (net of credits for fee reductions) plus 100% of the expenses allowed and any amounts paid by the Debtors pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, (iii) allowing such compensation and payment for professional services rendered and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred be without prejudice to Continental's right to seek such further compensation and/or payment for the full value of services performed
